Ivankovich's To Sell Rare Wallace Nutting Table Lamp

Online-Only Sale To Take Place Jan. 1 to 14

Mike and Sue Ivankovich are back in the Wallace Nutting auction business after a several-year hiatus. Running their first Wallace Nutting and Early 20th Century Hand-colored Photography Auction in 1988, they have returned to the auction arena, now using the HiBid auction format.

Leading their Jan. 1 to 14 Online-Only Auction will be an extremely rare Wallace Nutting ornately hand-carved and electrified wood table lamp. Ivankovich has been buying and selling Nutting items for more than 40 years, and this is the only such lamp he has ever seen. He speculates that this lamp was probably a privately-commissioned piece made by the Nutting Furniture Studio in Framingham, Mass., ca. 1930. Although it never appeared in any of his furniture catalogs, it is clearly marked with the distinctive smaller "Wallace Nutting Punched Brand" that was used ca. 1930.

This auction will include five pieces of Wallace Nutting furniture, and more than 100 other quality Nutting and early 20th century hand-colored photos, including work by Charles Sawyer, Fred Thompson, David Davidson, Asahel Curtis, JM Garrison, JC Bicknell, more.
